(a) All meetings of any committee or subcommittee of the general assembly, any caucus composed of members of the general assembly, the leadership of either house of the general assembly, the senate or the house of representatives shall be open to the public. Only when considering a matter involving the security of the state or nation or when investigating a proposed Article V impeachment of a public official other than a member of the general assembly, may a meeting be closed to the public, and then only if there is an affirmative vote of at least three fourths (3/4) of the members present.

Adequate public notice of every meeting must be provided. No member shall knowingly participate in any meeting conducted in violation of this subsection.
